

SHIPWRECKED

HOW TO PICK UP THE PIECES OF A BROKEN LIFE

“HOW I SEE THE WORLD”

Acts 22:30-23:35 - October 25, 2015

Message 4 of 5 in the Sermon Series

“Shipwrecked: How to Pick Up the Pieces of a Broken Life”

MY QUESTION: What was Paul thinking during all of this?

THE ANSWER: A staggering lesson in having _____¹ perspective in the midst of struggles.

We can know more about what Paul was thinking most of the time than what _____² was thinking because of all the writings of Paul.

The Apostle Paul wrote...

- _____³ Letters/Books of the New Testament.
 - _____⁴ chapters.
 - _____⁵ verses.
- _____⁶ Years of spiritual perspective and teaching.

How I See the World:

“theology” – The study [logos] of God [theos].

Proper theology doesn’t just inform and shape your view of God, it shapes your _____⁷ and how you see and respond to everything in it.

1. Paul knew his struggles were _____⁸, not personal.

Paul was experiencing his “day of _____⁹”...and he knew the enemy who was behind it.

If the problems are spiritual, then the _____¹⁰ is spiritual...and this shapes our worldview and our actions!

When our worldview tells us that our problems are spiritual and the solution is Jesus...it changes how we feel and how we _____¹¹!

2. Paul saw people as _____¹², not enemies.

Paul stood before no less than 110 ‘specific’ men in Acts 23 that wanted him dead...his words about them are _____¹³!
